Mutilated Extracts.

The Age this morning says:—The radicals no longer disguise their apprehensions of defeat in this city. In fact, they give up their entire city ticket, and are now only scrambling for some of the minor offices that are to be voted for.

"THE CITY IN DANGER, AND HOW TO SAVE IT."—There is great danger that the Republicans will not carry the city of Philadelphia on Tuesday week. There is at present a strong possibility that we will be defeated. It may be asked, "What do you mean to say that the atrocious doctrines of Seymour and Blair command the support of a majority of our people?"

We regret keenly to see our neighbor condescending to pick flaws in what we say, and to endeavor to wrong us by misquoting or pecking at typographical errors. We will cite an instance, small in itself, but which displays what we mean. At the time of the earthquake in South America we stated that 32,000,000 of people had perished. Of course, the error was typographical, and was shown to be so by the body of the article.

Naturalization in the Supreme Court. The fact that a dozen blank certificates of naturalization, sealed with a seal which is a fac-simile of that of the Supreme Court, and signed "J. Ross Snowden" in a hand which so nearly resembles the writing of that gentleman that he himself has been unable to declare under oath that it is not genuine, has created a profound impression throughout the community.

As the missionary efforts of John Quincy Adams, Jr., must necessarily fall among Republicans, perhaps Mr. Wallace will send him to the Democratic stronghold, Berks county, for instance, would be a good locality. There General Jackson's name is still annually invoked to cover the multitude of sins perpetrated by modern Democracy, and a favorite charge against the Republicans is that they are responsible, in some inexplicable manner, for General Jackson's failure to secure the Presidential prize in 1824.

And in the face of these startling facts, what has the Supreme Court done? What steps have been taken by the Chief Justice and his associate to investigate this matter, to probe it to the bottom, to ascertain with the slightest approach to certainty the number of fraudulent or forged papers which have been put into circulation?

Court has pursued a course in relation to this matter which will tend to establish the guilt or innocence of its Prothonotary, and nothing more. The episode of the twelve blanks signed and sealed in due form, to be filled up as the exigencies of the Democratic party arise, has scarcely ruffled its composure in the matter of naturalization.

A citizen who had the purity of the ballot and the welfare of the country at heart would imagine that if the court chose to do nothing more it would at least attempt to remedy the glaring irregularities of its present practice in the matter of naturalization, and cause it to conform to the plain requirements of the law.

The only question to be considered is as to the state of the law and its requirements. There have been so clearly and incontestably set forth by a distinguished member of the Philadelphia Bar, in a communication addressed to Judges Thompson and Sharwood, and published in the Press of this morning, that we quote from it at length, as follows:—

"The proceeding by which an alien obtains his final certificate of naturalization is a judicial proceeding, to be conducted under the supervision of the court, and not of the clerk, as the alien obtains his certificate by the judgment of the court, of which a record is ousulted in the making of the same. Therefore every certificate issued on proof made to your prothonotary or his deputies, which proof has not been made in the actual hearing of the court, and which has not been actually passed upon by the court, is unlawfully issued. And since aliens, or their kind friends of the Democratic party, will seek your court for naturalization, I submit that it is your clear legal duty to give to each application exactly the same judicial consideration that you give to a jury trial at nisi prius, or to an argument in a jury trial."

As JOHN QUINCY ADAMS has been imported into Pennsylvania to address the Democracy of this State, his views gain additional importance at this stage of the canvass. If Mr. Wallace, however, imagines that this degenerate representative of a noble name can change the opinions of a single intelligent Republican, he is woefully mistaken. If the original John Quincy Adams were living at this moment, no man in America would be listened to with more respect, no man would more heartily rejoice in the victory won over slavery, and no man would more impressively warn his countrymen against reviving the crippled power of the treacherous and dangerous Rebel conspirators.

As the missionary efforts of John Quincy Adams, Jr., must necessarily fall among Republicans, perhaps Mr. Wallace will send him to the Democratic stronghold, Berks county, for instance, would be a good locality. There General Jackson's name is still annually invoked to cover the multitude of sins perpetrated by modern Democracy, and a favorite charge against the Republicans is that they are responsible, in some inexplicable manner, for General Jackson's failure to secure the Presidential prize in 1824.

Let the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania assemble in banc at once, if it be possible. The honor and dignity of the Court demand it; the good name of the Commonwealth demands it; the purity of the ballot-box and the rights of legal voters demand it. If ever there was a crisis in the history of the State which required the calm and deliberate action of our Supreme judicial tribunal, that crisis is upon us now.

The Spanish Revolution. The last Bourbon sovereign has been driven from her throne, and all good men will rejoice that the Spanish revolution has been an immediate success, without much bloodshed. The question now is, What is to follow? Is Spain to be allowed to rise to her proper place in the family of nations, under a strong but liberal and popular government, or is she to become Mexicanized and sink to greater depths of degradation than ever beneath a reign of anarchy caused by the efforts of rival chiefs to grasp the sovereignty of the State?

Thus far the progress of the revolution has been in every way satisfactory. The Queen, whose notorious licentiousness brought the blush of shame to the cheek of every high-minded Spaniard whenever her name was mentioned, has fled from the country, and yesterday Marshal Serrano, accompanied by seven generals of the army, entered Madrid in triumph, with every demonstration of rejoicing by the people. A true patriot and a statesman, Espartero, has been placed at the head of a provisional government, and a cabinet has been formed as follows:—President, Serrano; Commerce, Castello; Marine, Topete; Justice, Aguirre; War, General Prim; Foreign Affairs, Olegaria; Finance, Madoz. During the review which took place yesterday in Madrid, the troops carried, side by side with the national flags, banners upon which were inscribed the significant mottoes, "Down with the Bourbons," "Sovereignty of the People," "Religious Liberty," and "Free Education."

Shall Perjury be Triumphant? We have made an earnest effort to counteract the wholesale perjury of the professional vouchers of applicants for naturalization in the Supreme Court, as our columns have abundantly testified during the past few days. The exposures which we have made have caused the alarm to be taken, and now every conceivable obstacle is being thrown in our way. On Friday a crier of the court, through stupidity or wilfulness, perverted the instructions of Judge Sharwood, and caused us to lose an entire day. On Saturday, when Judge Sharwood had given specific instructions which were entirely satisfactory to us, either through negligence or design a huge bundle of papers were presented for the examination of our reporters, and it was not until the labor of the day had been brought to a close that this second trick was detected, and another day found to be wasted. It is barely possible that both of these obstructions were accidental, but it is scarcely probable. The crier and clerk who were the instruments of the delay are both Democrats, holding their positions by virtue of their Democracy, and retaining them only so long as they continue faithfully to serve the cause of the Democratic party. Therefore, whether accidental or designed, the delays to which we are subjected will appear to the public in the latter light; and not until our labors are permitted to continue without obstruction will the Democratic party and its instruments be relieved of the imputation of a design to obstruct the ends of justice.

The infamous attacks of the Democratic press upon General Hector Tyndale should arouse in his behalf an irresistible feeling of enthusiasm. He is not only one of the bravest and most brilliant soldiers of the war, but a citizen beyond reproach, and an enterprising and honorable merchant; and he is gifted with rare intelligence as well as unimpeachable integrity. Philadelphians have never had an opportunity to vote for a municipal candidate more worthy of their suffrages, and in electing him the city would secure a noble Mayor.

George W. Jamison. George W. Jamison, at one time a popular actor in this city, was killed on Saturday evening at Yonkers, N. Y., by being run over by an express train on the Hudson River Railroad. Mr. Jamison played at the Walnut Street Theatre some twenty-five or thirty years ago under Weymss' management, at the National under Burton, and at the Arch under Conner. He was a favorite with play-goers, but becoming mixed up in the Forrest divorce case, as the author of the famous "Consuelo" letter, he lost caste, and left Philadelphia. He played in New Orleans for some time, and of late years he has been attached, in a minor capacity, to the companies of various New York theatres, and has almost been forgotten by the public in general.

THE HOURS OF MAHOMET'S Paradise are described in the Koran as beautiful creatures made of milk and musk, and fragrant as honey; but three drops of PEALON'S new perfume, "FLORE DE MAYO," on the handkerchief of a mortal maiden, will surround her with such a blissful haze of perfume as never was dreamed of by poet or prophet in "Araby the Blest." Sold by all druggists.

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA, CITY OF PHILADELPHIA.—Personally appeared before me, an Alderman in and for the above named city, Colonel Charles Kiecksefer, a resident of the Sixth ward of the City of Philadelphia, who being by me sworn in due form of law, did depose and say that on the morning of October 3, 1868, he was arrested upon a warrant issued by Alderman John A. Hurley, upon the complaint of a man representing himself to be Franklin H. Hart, a resident of the Philadelphia a luncheon, charging him with having attempted to colonize the Sixth ward of the City of Philadelphia, and that he has no acquaintance with the said Hart never having recollected seeing him before but he verily believes that said party was procured and paid for this service to injure this deponent, in the same manner as vouchers have been procured in naturalizations before the Supreme Court of the State of Pennsylvania, Eastern District, by CHARLES K. LECKNER. Sworn to and subscribed before me this 3d day of October, A. D. 1868. SAMUEL P. JONES, Jr.

INSURANCE COMPANIES.

Office of the People's Fire Insurance Co.

237 and 239 DOCK Street, PHILADELPHIA, October 1, 1867.

A subscription book to increase the capital stock of the People's Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia, incorporated by an act of the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, approved the 15th of March, 1859, has been opened this day at the office of the Company, Nos. 237 and 239 Dock street, Philadelphia, and those interested in the progress of home insurance are respectfully invited to subscribe.

The People's Insurance Company, which has been in actual existence for the transaction of business during the last three years, has, under the management of Mr. G. Paul, its present President, already succeeded in the establishment of a fine, well-paying home business, and nothing is needed but a larger capital to make the Company a first-class one. Mr. Paul has an experience of fifteen years in this and other States of the Union in the fire insurance business, and adding thereto the People's Insurance Company, it may safely be stated that it will be an excellent investment for subscribers to the stock, especially as a number of reliable home fire insurance companies are badly needed in this State, business being ready for them in abundance.
